White Wine

2017 Private Reserve PINOT GRIGIO – Central Coast

Vibrant aromas of citrus blossom and lemon zest excite the nose, followed by Key lime, Meyer lemon and flint on the palate. The short finish is surprisingly soft and mellow.

2018 Private Reserve GRIGNOLINO ROSE — Monterey

Bright and crisp with a little dried apricot on the nose, this wine opens with overripe strawberry undertones and a hint of Bartlett pear. This is a very versatile food wine, making it a perfect barbeque wine, picnic wine, or just relax on the patio wine. Drink while young and serve slightly chilled to experience the most flavor.

20.00 16.00

Red Wine

2015 Private Reserve MERLOT – Santa Clara Valley

Hints of Brazil nuts surrounded by red fruit pop with flavors of cherries, strawberries, and tobacco. A velvety black cherry cream surrounds the edges of this delightful wine

25.00 20.00

2015 Private Reserve CABERNET FRANC – Santa Clara Valley

Initial aromas of raspberry blossoms and white pepper lead into flavors of tart red plum and baking spices. Soft and velvety on the palate with an elegant finish.

Sparkling Wine

Emile's GRAND CUVEE

Produced in a drier "Brut" style, the Grand Cuvée is the driest and most sophisticated of our Emile's Champagne production. This elegant California Champagne is crisp and clean on the finish. The Grand Cuvée is produced from California grapes and has a 1.8% residual sugar.

2015 Private Reserve PETITE SIRAH — Santa Clara Valley

On first opening, dark berry notes and subtle smokiness dominate the nose. Rich blueberry, spice and black pepper explode on the palate, offering a mouthwatering acidity and a smooth, oaky finish. Meats, stews, grilled meats are excellent matches for this hardy wine. Our Petite Sirah is tasting great now but can easily be held for another 5-10 years.
